

Ready to take the next big step in your career?

It's time to get recognized for your skills, knowledge and experience as a medical practice professional; become a Certified Medical Practice Executive (CMPE) today!

Apply today and receive your first year of national MGMA membership FREE!
Get the professional recognition you deserve by becoming board certified through the American College of Medical Practice Executives and joining a community of more than 6,600 of your peers who are transforming medical care delivery every day.

Ask your State Forum Rep for more details, or visit us online at mgma.org/state-certification
to learn more and apply today!

Must be a current state member and not a current national MGMA member to qualify for free one year membership. Applicant must meet requirements for board certification and be accepted into the program before free one year national MGMA membership is awarded. Once CMPE credential is awarded, member must maintain their national MGMA membership to keep the credential. Offer not valid combined with other offers or incentives. Offer only available through December 31, 2015.

Advancing Leaders. Advancing Practices.™

MGMA
Medical Group Management Association